MISSOURI'S QUEEN OF FAIRS FOR 1963 — Miss Sharon Holt, a petite 17-year-old Miss from Kennett, Mo., was named Missouri Queen of Fairs Wednesday night at the Missouri State Fair. The young lady who is five feet two inches tall, weighs 97 pounds, has blue eyes and blonde hair. She came to the State Fair representing the Delta Fair of Kennett. She won the Queenship of the Mid-South Fairs talent contest, was first alternate of the Delta

Fair Beauty Revue. The New Queen is a cheerleader of the Kennett High School Pep Club, a member of the girls ensemble and also of the mixed chorus. Miss Holt is seen sitting in the Governor's box at the Missouri State Fair Harness races, Wednesday afternoon, the picture was taken when she was one of the six finalists of the Queen Contest. The Queen's mother, Mrs. Ed Nelson, accompanied her to the Fair.

Sedalia Day At State Fair Makes City A 'Ghost Town'

Close Shop So Workers Can Attend

Sedalia took on the appearance of a ghost town this afternoon as business establishments closed their doors so employees could take in activities at the Missouri State Fair. The day is dedicated to Sedalia and Kansas City.

Yesterday was Governor's Day, and Gov. John M. Dalton spoke briefly at a luncheon held in his honor. Afterwards he remarked that he would not run again.

At the luncheon, Governor Dalton in his brief remarks told the group, "As I walked between that fine Honor Guard a young man rushed up and said 'it's good to see you again, Haskell, I'll never forget you.' Can you people imagine anyone taking me for Haskell Holman?"

The Governor then said, in jest, "Mrs. Dalton has remarked to me that if I run for any office, I'd have to do it with some other woman, so I am not going to run again."

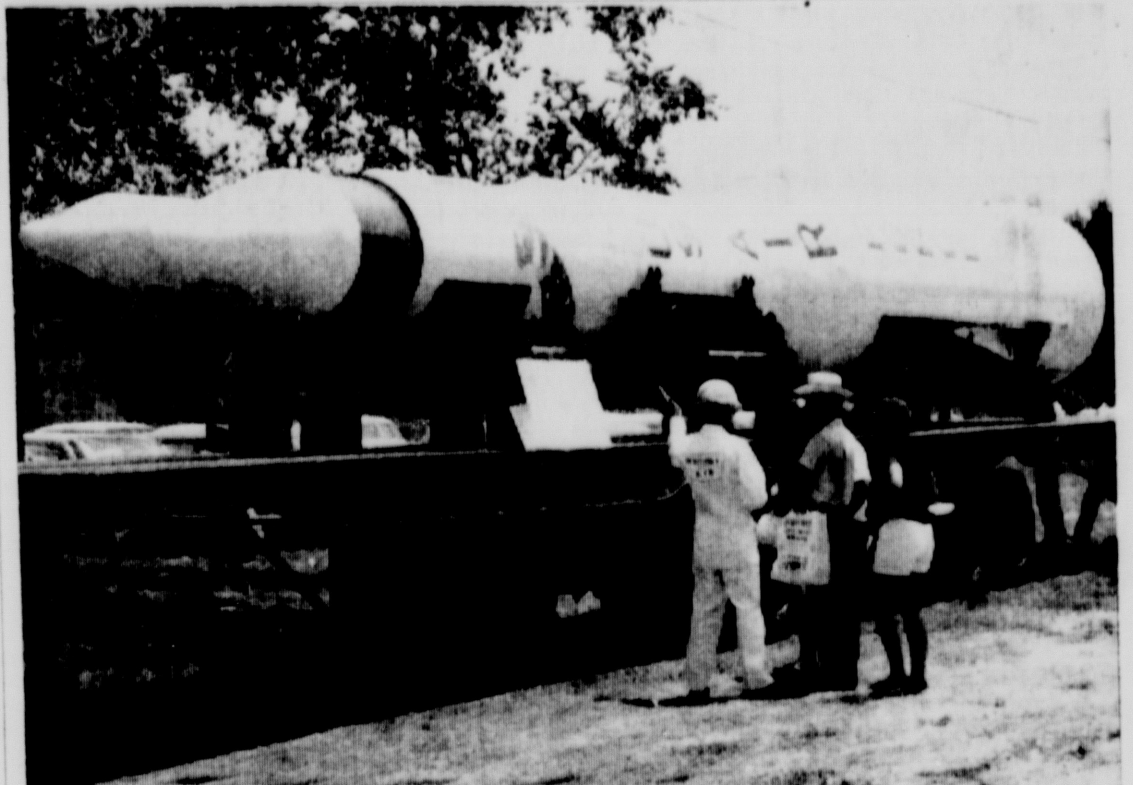

Mrs. Dalton was not at the luncheon. She was "baby sitting" at the Mansion in Jefferson City with her grandchildren. However, she arrived later in the afternoon to attend the Governor's dinner at Bothwell Hotel in Sedalia.

Wednesday's attendance soared to 24,273, compared to the 20,464 that attended on the same day last year, an increase of 5,809. For the five-day period, 133,066 have passed through the gates this year, compared to 127,014 in 1962, an increase of 6,052.

High schools bands on the grounds Wednesday were the St. Clair, Mo., band which led the Governors delegation from the main gate to the Administration Building; also the Eldon, Green Ridge and Marceline bands.

School bands scheduled for Thursday are Conway, Fatima, Westphalia, Keytesville, Glasgow, Russellville and Alton. The Stet. Mo., FFA chapter was announced as the winner of the Governors plaque for the outstanding FFA exhibit of livestock at the fair. It was their tenth straight win and 12th win out of 15 years showing. There were 58 FFA Chapters exhibiting livestock at the fair.

Jane, a two-year-old mule, was tagged the grand champion of the mule show. The mule is owned and shown by Adams and Murphy of Lamar, Adams and Murphy of Farmers Bank, Lincoln recently.

MINUTEMAN PREVIEW — Fair-goers are getting a close-up look at a mock Minuteman missile of the type to be placed in 150 silos nearing completion in the Sedalia area. Air Force personnel from the Whiteman Air Force base are explaining to exhibit visitors the missile's capabilities as a deterrent-to-war weapon. The 351st Missile unit is based at Whiteman.

Miners Still Trapped

Escape Route Off Target; Drill Misses By Few Feet

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—Drilling of a new escape hole for the three trapped coal miners failed today — apparently by only a few feet and at a time when success seemed moments away.

A third try at drilling a 12-inch escape hole was ordered.

But if David Fellin, 58, one of the trapped men, had his way the rescue workers would gamble everything on an attempt to enlarge the present six-inch lifeline hole so he and Henry Throne, 28, could come out that way.

"Why not ream the food hole?" asked Fellin over the microphone connection through it to the surface.

"Do you think that's the right thing to do?" countered Gordon Smith, deputy state secretary of mining. "We'll think about it but I believe it would be easier to move the rig and be faster to drill another 12-inch hole. It seems safer, too, since there would be no loss of communications and food supplies."

"All right," said Fellin. The first escape hole effort was abandoned late Tuesday when Fellin and Throne reported that it appeared to be cracking the ceiling over the tiny passageway where they have been trapped 331 feet underground for nine days.

The first hole took about 22 hours to drill; the second about 25 — not counting the six hours lost Wednesday afternoon when a drive shaft broke.

Assault Charge In Altercation At Fairgrounds

An altercation early Thursday in a food stand on the Missouri State Fairgrounds has resulted in a complaint of disturbing the peace and common assault being lodged against Leafa Ford Denslow, 25, of Syracuse, N. Y., a carnival employee.

The complaint against Denslow is signed by Ben D. Bennett, an employee of the food stand of Mrs. Ken Williams. The incident occurred about 3:30 a.m. and Deputy Sheriff Jack Coutts and Highway Patrol Trooper J. V. Wheeler, of St. Louis, took Denslow into custody.

Coutts said Bennett had asked Denslow to leave the food stand. Denslow refused, the men exchanged blows and in the scuffle Bennett sustained face wounds. Bennett was taken to Bothwell Hospital where he was treated and released.

Denslow is being held in the Pettis County jail. Coutts said Denslow was employed at an ape man sideshow on the Gooding Amusement Company's midway.

Man Reportedly Hurt On State Fair Ride

Kenneth Lovell, Edgerton, Mo., was treated at the State Fair emergency hospital Wednesday for a bruised face which he reportedly received on the "Flying Coaster" ride at the carnival. A total of 36 persons had been treated at the hospital at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

According to hospital authorities, 49 persons were treated. All injuries were of a minor nature.

Surf Club Holdup Man Nabbed Fast

Admits Entering Natkin Company Building Recently

An armed robbery of the Surf Club on West 16th street road, about 10 o'clock Wednesday night, was quickly solved by Sheriff Emmett Fairfax and Deputy Jack Coutts, and a local burglary at the Natkin Engineering Co., last July 14 also cleared up. One man was arrested in connection with both robberies.

Sheriff Fairfax was at 16th Street and State Fair Blvd., when he received the report. Fairfax got a description and he radioed Coutts to "bring out some pictures."

Harold Straka, 17, of 906 South Missouri, the victim, identified one of the pictures as Gerald D. McCormick, 20, of Route 3, Sedalia. McCormick was apprehended a short time later near the William R. Parkhurst farm on West 16th, carrying a box containing 144 packs of cigarettes and 81 candy bars which were identified as having been taken from the Surf Club along with a ten-dollar bill and a one dollar bill. The case was closed in less than an hour and a half after it took place.

According to Fairfax, the Straka youth reported he was cleaning alone and was in the building alone. He said the first he knew someone was there was when the man kicked a bucket attracting his attention. The man was carrying a .22-caliber rifle which he used to threaten Straka. He asked if he had any money, and where it was, then made Straka go into a room and searched the place. He then told Straka not to notify anyone for three hours or he'd get hurt.

Straka called John Talbot, owner, and within a few minutes he was with the youth.

Fairfax and Coutts started to the home of McCormick and came upon him walking along the road. He was still carrying the rifle, Fairfax said, but made no attempt to point it at either officer.

Sheriff Fairfax reported that after questioning McCormick, he admitted the armed robbery and also admitted entering the Natkin Engineering Co., and according to Deputy Coutts, McCormick said the reason he entered the Natkin Co., was because the window was broken out, and he decided to go inside.

Fair Queen 'Speechless' In Victory

A 17-year-old Kennett, Mo., girl was speechless, Wednesday night, when Haskell Holman, State Auditor, opened a sealed envelope and announced the winner of the Missouri Queen of Fairs contest. It was Miss Sharon Holt, a Kennett high school student.

The 1963 Queen shrieked when the announcement was made, then went smiling to the center of the stage in front of the grandstand to be crowned by Governor John M. Dalton. The Queen hailed from the governor's hometown.

The petite queen — she's only five feet two inches tall, weighs 97 pounds, has blue eyes and blonde hair — was gracious in her acceptance. Although she had won in her own home county, the winning at the Missouri Fair was a most thrilling and exciting experience.

She received unanimous applause from the other contestants, and congratulations from the other 28 girls from over Missouri. Each girl was presented a Missouri State Fair plaque, and a gift. The gift was from the Missouri Coca Cola Bottlers Association.

The Association also presented to the queen a wrist watch. This gift was one among many.

She was later presented the keys to a Chevrolet convertible from the O'Connor Chevrolet Buick Co., all her own for the remaining days of the Fair. Her first trip in the car was from the grandstand to the State Fair Horse Show.

At the Horse Show she was escorted to the center of the large coliseum and introduced to the large crowd there.

The remainder of the week will be spent visiting various exhibits, shows and having her picture taken many times with Grand Champion entries and celebrities visiting the fair.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Ed Nelson, Kennett, who accompanied her to the fair.

Burglars Hit Homes; Losses Near $5,000

House burglars have struck four rural residences in this area in the past week with the total loss estimated near $5,000. Taken from the John McMullin home on Route 5 in Pettis County were items exceeding $1,000 in value.

The McMullin family, who reside about eight miles northeast of Beaman near the Pettis-County line, told the Pettis County Sheriff's Department the burglary at their home occurred sometime between Aug. 12 and 20. The family had been gone for about a week and returned to find their home looted.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Coutts investigated the burglary Wednesday. Items missing are a typewriter, two auto tires, a stereo record player, an electric iron, a bedspread, a window fan, an antique mantle clock, some pictures, a hair dryer, a chain saw, a pair of shoes, a table radio, a kitchen table and six chairs, power mower, a box of mechanical tools, two quilts, three comforts and a portable sewing machine.

The items totalled in value at $1,030 with the most expensive loss being the box of tools estimated at $300. The stereo set was valued at $109 and the chain saw at $100.

Cooper County has been hardest hit by the burglars. Sheriff Lylburn Mann has investigated three during the last week with the loss in all being set at $2,500.

Entered and looted have been the residences of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Elliott, north of California near the Cooper-Moniteau County line.

New Sense of Urgency

Strive to Avert Railroad Strike

WASHINGTON (AP)—With a year work rules dispute themselves, threatened nationwide rail strike only a week away, the Senate Commerce Committee met today to devise some legislative means of averting it.

The committee hoped to be ready with a bill later today, but Chairman Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., said it will not be brought up in the Senate until Monday. He made the announcement after conferring with Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana.

Magnuson said that Rep. Oren Harris, D-Ark., chairman of the House Commerce Committee, had told him the Senate bill should reach the House early next week. Although it held extensive hearings, the Commerce Committee has been hanging fire on legislation proposed by President Kennedy July 22 to avert a strike. The committee hoped that the carriers and the rail unions, negotiating under the eye of the Labor Department, could settle the four-

Green Ridge Bank Interest Is Sold

The controlling interest in the Farmers and Merchants Bank at Green Ridge has been sold. The bank will continue under the same management.

The stock of James F. Labahn, president, and C. W. Wisdom, chairman of the board, has been purchased by the Green Ridge Investors, Inc. Members of the corporation are Miss Charmin Douglas of New York City, daughter of Lewis Douglas, former ambassador to England; Cecil Barker of Hollywood, Calif., television producer; T. E. J. Greenwood and J. J. G. Greenwood of Southern California, formerly of England; Richard M. Horton, an attorney of Beverly Hills, Calif., and William Hedges Robinson, Jr., of Denver, Colo., an attorney and authority on banking law.

Mr. Robinson was elected to the board of directors but all of the present officers and directors will continue to direct the bank's affairs with Mr. Labahn as president; Ruth Hamlin, cashier; and Morris E. Hinken, assistant cashier.

Some of the stockholders in the Green Ridge bank purchase purchased controlling interest in the Farmers Bank, Lincoln recently.

$500,000 Dug From Under Mill

TROY, Ohio (AP)—Buried treasure in excess of a half million dollars has been unearthed beneath an old mill—US currency buried there by the late owner who told relatives he distrusted banks.

The Altman Mills feed plant four miles north of this southwestern Ohio city was the scene of the find.

Earlier in the week, workmen dug up two 10-gallon milk cans containing bills amounting to an estimated $350,000.

Early today a third, five-gallon can was uncovered. It, too, was stuffed with cash.

Bank officials said the money thus far recovered is "in excess of $500,000" but they were not specific as to the exact amount.

The finds came from under concrete pilings at the mill.

R. S. Altman, late owner of the mills, often had told relatives he did not trust banks. A few hours before his death July 28 at the age of 76 in Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., Altman told a son and daughter he had buried all his money beneath the mill.

William Sutton of Pittsburgh, the family attorney who announced the first finds Wednesday night, said "We knew it was possible that old Mr. Altman was delirious and there was no expectation of finding anything buried there, money or otherwise."

Nearly a dozen workmen, all mill employees, began digging early Tuesday. They were guarded by Miami County Sheriff's deputies, and they dug nearly eight hours before their shovels struck metal.

The money was undamaged in the unsealed cans—tied up in bundles of two or three inches in thickness, and in all denominations. Each bundle was wrapped in sheets of the Dayton Daily News dated Oct. 10-15, 1945.

Pouring A New Highway

FIRST PAVEMENT—Crews from the Shaw-Mc division of the Koss Construction Co. pour the first concrete on the local Highway 65 - Urban Plan project. The work began Wednesday morning near the intersection of old and new Highway 65, about one mile north of Sedalia. Work on this portion of the combined project could be finished in one week. The entire paving project south to Broadway could be done in three weeks, a spokesman for the firm said. The Koss firm is subcontracting the work from the Howard Bridge Co., prime contractor. (Democrat-Capital photo).

School Time — Shoe Time

Back-to-school means new shoes. Soon our children will be returning to school, or on their way to school for the first time.

Mother, take a good look at your child's feet! Children's feet differ as greatly as their faces. No two pairs of feet are exactly alike. Most parents are extremely careful about their children's general health but they pay too little attention to the care of their young feet. Damage caused by such neglect may remain with a child for the rest of his life.

Podiatrists know that feet play a very important role in the general health of the child. Foot trouble is the prime cause of bad posture. Poor feet can result in headaches, backaches and general irritability or apathy. It's not at all far-fetched that bad feet can cause psychological difficulties in children. Irritability produces friction and tension with parents, with playmates and teachers at school.

Buy the Correct Shoe
Obviously, a well-made shoe will survive the daily pounding and rough wear that active children give their shoes longer than a poorly constructed pair. So, if your children are the athletic type, a better shoe will give more wear.

Three things may influence proper fit of the shoe: the skill of the sales person, your knowledge of a proper fit, and "eye-appeal" of the shoe to your child. Shoes that are too small are harmful, especially if they are too short. Shoes that fit correctly permit standing, walking, and running in comfort and safety. Shoes that are too large are harmful, too, and result in blisters and callouses. A shoe that fits well conforms to the shape of the foot, and has a good half-inch of space beyond the big toe. The big joint of the big toe should come just at the rounding-in of the sole on the inner edge of the shoe near the instep. Shoes should always be fitted with the full weight on the feet. Well-fitted shoes require no "breaking in."

For best foot health, leather is superior to anything you can put on your foot. It molds readily to the shape of the foot and allows the active foot to breathe and pass off perspiration readily. It is resilient and yet firm enough to give the needed support for growing feet. Insist on leather soles as well as uppers. If you're told that substitutes outwear uppers, remember that children usually outgrow shoes before they wear them out. If it's wear you're looking for, nothing will outwear a top-grade leather sole. Millions of youngsters kick off their shoes in the spring and do not put on proper shoes until school starts in the fall. This means that for nearly half a year their feet are without adequate support and protection. They wear sneakers or flimsy sandals and play shoes. This should not be permitted. If your child insists, let them wear sneakers for playing on soft ground but never for more than a few hours daily. Your youngster may pay sooner or later in permanent foot ailments for neglect of his feet during the summer months.

Shoe Labels
Something new has been added to shoe shopping this season — labels. Federal Trade Commission says that shoes whose major parts are made of material which imitates leather but is not actually leather should be clearly identified. The information may be on a separate hang tag, printed on the lining of the shoe or on a tag pasted to the sole. The parts of a shoe covered by the FTC "shoe guides" includes the leather upper, leather lining, the leather insole and the leather outsole. Although shoes which are all leather need not be labeled, many manufacturers will continue to stamp their footwear "Genuine Leather."

Furniture Trends
Wood finishes are medium to light on cherry, walnut, and mahogany. Some distressing continues. Some upper-priced, modern styles are featuring light finishes on oak, birch and ash. There are many two-and-three-wood combinations with rosewood leading the exotic. Decorative materials include cane, marble, slate, metal grill and haris.

Upholstered furniture has more exposed wood trim, particularly in medium to upper brackets. There are more molded forms, bentwood backs and arms, and woodframe chairs with upholster-

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: Last Saturday night I had a date with Chuck. I've known him for a long time but it was only hullo and goodbye. When he asked me to this dance I was quite surprised. I'm not the greatest dancer in the world, but then neither is Chuck. When the band came out with the Bossa Nova I was stumped because I'm not up on that stuff. I stumbled a little and chuck said, "Holy Cow, will you please try to follow me?" I tried but couldn't get the hang of it. It was pretty gruesome.

Then we passed a mirror and I saw Chuck signaling a guy in the stag line to take me off his hands. Chuck held up two fingers. In a few minutes Pete came over and cut in.

The next day I found out from Pete's sister that Chuck had paid Pete two bucks to "save his life." I'm so mad I can't see straight. What should I do?—WENDY.

Dear Wendy: Send Chuck one dollar in an envelope and tell him you don't think it's fair that he should stand the total cost of the cut-in—because you were just as happy to see Pete as he was.

Dear Ann Landers: My wife's sister telephoned us four months ago in the middle of the night—as usual. She was hysterical. Her husband had come home roaring drunk and was breaking up the furniture and smashing dishes. So my wife begged me to drive over and get her sister and the four children.

They've been with us ever since, in their five-room bungalow. We have five children of our own so you can imagine what the place looks like. There are kids on the floor in sleeping bags, on the back porch in a hammock, and on Army cots in the living room. The grocery bill is out of this world and the milk bill is up there with it.

The father of these kids has not sent over one dime to help out and I am sick of it. Last night I learned my sister-in-law has been having "social dates" with her husband. When I asked her about it she said they were considering going back together. I want her out of the house immediately. My wife says it would not be charitable. What do you think?—BOTH CHEEKS

Dear Cheeks: I think you deserve to be canonized. Your brother-in-law is obligated by law to support his family and he should be made to do it. And YOUR family should not have to live

Rose Show Judging Is Difficult

There was a riot of color at the Rose Show held Wednesday at the Floriculture Building on the Missouri State Fairgrounds. A total of 305 specimen blossoms and 44 arrangements made judging difficult.

Specimen classes included hybrid teas, floribundas, miniatures, grandifloras, climbers, and collections. According to Mrs. Wilford Acker, Floriculture superintendent, the number of specimens was about the same as last year.

The artistic arrangements were especially interesting. Themes for the arrangements were "The Riviera," "The Orient," "The Beach at Waikiki," "The Sahara," "Moon Over Miami," "Paris," "The Alps," "I Wouldn't Come Straight Home," "With a Foreign Flavor," and "Far Away Places."

"I Wouldn't Come Straight Home" required the use of the Holgarth or "S" curve. One arrangement with pink roses in a tall stemmed glass and dark red and green foliage formed the curve.

Yellow roses in a dark green container with tall gladioli leaves in the back form an arrangement for "The Alps." A snow effect was made by coloring the top of the leaves white.

"With a Foreign Flavor" was the theme of an informal luncheon table. Unusually attractive was a Hawaiian table covered with a beige cloth. The table was set with green leaf-shaped plates and bamboo bowls. Red roses formed the focal point of the arrangement which was made with tropical foliage and driftwood.

The theme for the mantle arrangements was "Far Away Places." Red Russia was portrayed with miniature roses accented by evergreen foliage and plant stems. The arrangement was made in a black container with a red background. According to Mrs. Acker, the woman who made the arrangement was originally from Russia.

Mrs. Stanley Potts, Sr., Tipton, was the winner of three special awards: the gold certificate for the best rose in the show; the silver certificate, for the second best in the show; and the bronze certificate for the third best in the show. All blue ribbon winners in the hybrid tea class were eligible for these awards.

A total of $230 in prize money was offered for the Rose Show.

Missouri State Fair on-foot carcass lamb show. Judges look for carcasses with a maximum of lean meat which in turn minimizes surplus fat. Kraig Stemme of Marthasville took the champion boar in the FFA Duroc show. Tom Rowe of Bowling Green came through with champion sow.

In the barrow show, grand champion on-foot barrow was shown by James Franka and son of Bolivar. Reserve champion honors went to Paul Belt of Gravette, Ark.

Donald Butcher, Pattonsburg, won champion boar in the FFA Poland show. He was also reserve champion of the open show. Charles Peniston of Chillicothe won champion sow.

In the beef cattle (Herefords) show, Edg-Clif Farms, Potosi, won champion bull and reserve champion bull. Champion female was won by Haggard Farms of Steele, and McLean - Hill Ranches of Springfield won reserve champion female.

A Humdinger, for Sure

Developing something to a higher, better or more advanced stage is called progress. An exemplification of this is the extended acreage and what is found upon it today at the Missouri State Fair compared with what was there 10, 25 or 50 years ago.

The first fair was in 1901 and has been held annually except in 1943 and 1944, war years. The number of those who attended fairs in the early part of the century is dwindling, but those who do remember them can talk your arm off with reminiscences. One of these is Judge Eugene Couey, spry and chipper at 96, who probably has attended more Missouri State Fairs than any man alive today. He was also at a luncheon Wednesday in honor of Governor John Dalton as guest of Don Thomason, Commissioner of Agriculture, and W. H. Ritzenthaler, Secretary of the Fair, who by the way are to be congratulated for the well-planned 61st exposition.

Not only everywhere on the grounds is there a reflection of progress, but also in the programming of events and entertainment. The old timers are more conscious of this than any others. They remember the few wooden structures, unpaved streets, the street cars, the shuttle trains, the famous Tent City to which people came in wagons and buggies to spend the week.

There they unloaded cots and bedding, stoves and dishes, usually sufficient for the week's camp out at the fair grounds. Many of them were fair exhibitors. It was like a big family reunion for those who came to Tent City year after year, and also for those who came to room with local home owners.

In the evenings when gas lamps and lanterns provided the only stable illumination there were no attractions on the fair grounds. After nightfall everyone came to Sedalia's downtown district to attend the nickelodeons, to shop in the stores kept open for that purpose, to gaze at window displays or merely walk up and down Ohio avenue and Main street. Downtown was like a fair itself with the crowds milling about.

Somehow all these recollections stir the memory of more carefree days — less crowding, less speeding, less noise, less costs, less restrictions, less laws, less regulations, less taxes.

Most old timers will agree that along with progress it is too bad to lose so many of the virtues of the past which were less conducive to heart failure and nervous breakdown.

Regardless of this momentary lapse into nostalgia isn't the 61st annual exposition a humdinger?

See you there again — at the Missouri State Fair.

Looking Backward

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Sixty-four people, members of 18 families, are living on 1,884 acres of land near Hughesville, controlled by the Bois d'Arc Corporation and pioneering in an unusual modern project in agriculture, living together as close neighbors, working co-operatively and sharing the profits. It is one of two groups of farms in the Hughesville district built and sponsored by the Farm Security Administration, together known as the Osage Farms. There is a board of five directors: President, W. T. Harper; J. F. Rutherford, Harold Withers, Charles E. Singer and Jerry Vardeman.

FORTY YEARS AGO

W. L. Noah, South Prospect, postoffice inspector, has been transferred to the St. Louis district, with headquarters there beginning Sept. 1. The change will mean the removal of the family to St. Louis where Miss Ardath Noah will attend Washington University, and Joseph Noah the grade schools.

K Wants Treaty With 2 Germanys

(Editor's Note: Here is a second report by Drew Pearson on his exclusive interview with Premier Khrushchev. It was Khrushchev's first interview since the signing of the test-ban treaty.)

By DREW PEARSON

GAGRA, GEORGIA, U.S.S.R. — The last time I interviewed Khrushchev on the shores of the Black Sea, the Berlin crisis was at its peak and he gave his ideas on the Berlin problem with considerable vigor. This time he was more sympathetic, though still emphatic that the German question was the key to European peace.

"The German question is like a case of appendicitis," he said. "Everyone understands it's harmful but the patient doesn't want to be operated on, so he walks around and aggravates his disease."

"Everyone wants a settlement of the German question. It would improve relations not only between the United States and the Soviet Union, but all countries. I am sure this is the wish of President Kennedy."

"It would seem quite reasonable to let the people of West Berlin develop their future as they wish, but along comes Adenauer and objects. He then starts bargaining between Kennedy and De Gaulle and Berlin becomes a pawn."

"However, it is inconceivable that we should have war. Why should we go to war over Adenauer's claims?"

When I asked Khrushchev for his present ideas on settling Berlin, he replied, "A peace treaty should be signed between the two German states. One goes toward capitalism and the other goes toward socialism. But we must let them work out their future. We must sign a treaty guaranteeing routes of access and guaranteeing noninterference in their internal affairs. We must give West Berlin a chance to develop the way it wants."

"This will be a reasonable solution. It would not infringe on either of the two states, but would give them a chance to develop as they wish. We want Germany to become a socialist state. You want Germany to become a capitalist state. This cannot be arranged around a round-table. I didn't understand the translation of this and asked for an explanation."

A Table Of Any Shape

"You got me wrong," explained Mr. K. "I was ironic about the round-table. The shape of the table has nothing to do with it. It will not help us to talk at any shape table. No side will yield, so the only solution is to sign a peace treaty and let Germany work out its own solution."

Guest Editorial

OTTAWA JOURNAL: "By the Way, Dear" We had thought the chronicling of the Profumo affair had covered (or uncovered) everything there was to know about the lives and times of Britain's racy set.

Not so. At least the following letter to the London Daily Telegraph from Miss Virginia Gramham raises a nice point for which no explanation has yet been offered:

"I do not know if any of your readers are female spies, but if so perhaps they could, in the light of recent events, divulge one trade secret without jeopardizing their livelihood. At what moment during their amorous associations with their victims do they drag in the subject of nuclear weapons?"

"From a distance one cannot visualize them ever finding a suitable occasion on which to make nonchalant inquiry about our naval defenses. Not that is, without sounding even to the most bewitched male a trifle incongruous."

Lor' bless the English, they think of everything.

"Would this mean that Bonn would give up its demand for reunification?" asked Agnes Meyer, who participated in the interview.

"Yes, this is so," replied Khrushchev, "but there again in a peace treaty we can meet the national wishes of the people and there can be unification of the two German states provided there is agreement between the two German governments."

"On what basis will they agree?" Khrushchev asked, then answered his own question: "Maybe capitalistic, maybe socialist. It is up to them to discuss and decide."

I asked him whether he and Dean Rusk made any progress in settling these matters.

"No," he replied. "We've only exchanged views. We decided not to bring up this question now, not until the test-ban treaty has been disposed of. Then we will proceed to other questions. We also decided to pay some attention to the non-aggression pact between NATO and the Warsaw pact nations, but we didn't decide anything except to come back and discuss it all later."

Put German Question First

I asked whether there was any priority regarding which subject should be discussed first. Mr. K. replied, "These matters are not linked in any way. Of course, it would be more desirable to discuss the German question first because it is a major one. Discussion on a non-aggression pact is easier. It is a moral matter."

I recalled a conversation with Mayor Willie Brandt in West Berlin last year in which he advocated putting part of the United Nations in West Berlin.

"I have said we favor the deployment of part of the UN in Berlin," Khrushchev observed, "but that does not mean there will be no control at the border dividing Berlin. All states have their borders and guard them and it is time for the West to get used to that fact. East Germany will guard its border."

When I asked Khrushchev about reports that he might visit Pope Paul, he left the door open with this reply:

"Replying in office-like language, I may state that so far my plans do not include such a visit." Then he went on to say, "The late Pope John was a man of whom I might be said 'He felt the pulse of the time.' He was much wiser than his predecessor. He understood the times we live in."

Khrushchev discussed the question of mutual trust and, briefly, Red China, as will be reported tomorrow.

The World Today

Perfect Example of US Dilemma

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — South Viet Nam is the perfect example of this country's dilemma in trying to deal with a dictatorship in a backward country which it hopes to keep out of communism.

For years the United States has pampered, placated and pacified South Viet Nam's dictator President Ngo Dinh Diem while he warred against the Communist guerrillas of North Viet Nam. This has been true since he took over in 1955.

Yet, in those years he couldn't have lasted without American help or perhaps even escaped alive.

But the United States was afraid to antagonize him. It felt it knew of no other leader who could rally the South Vietnamese against the Reds. Now suddenly the United States gets tough.

It has condemned his onslaught against the Vietnamese Buddhists who make up 70 per cent of the 14.5 million people. Some of Diem's generals are Buddhists. So are some members of the so-called Assembly. Diem rules by decree.

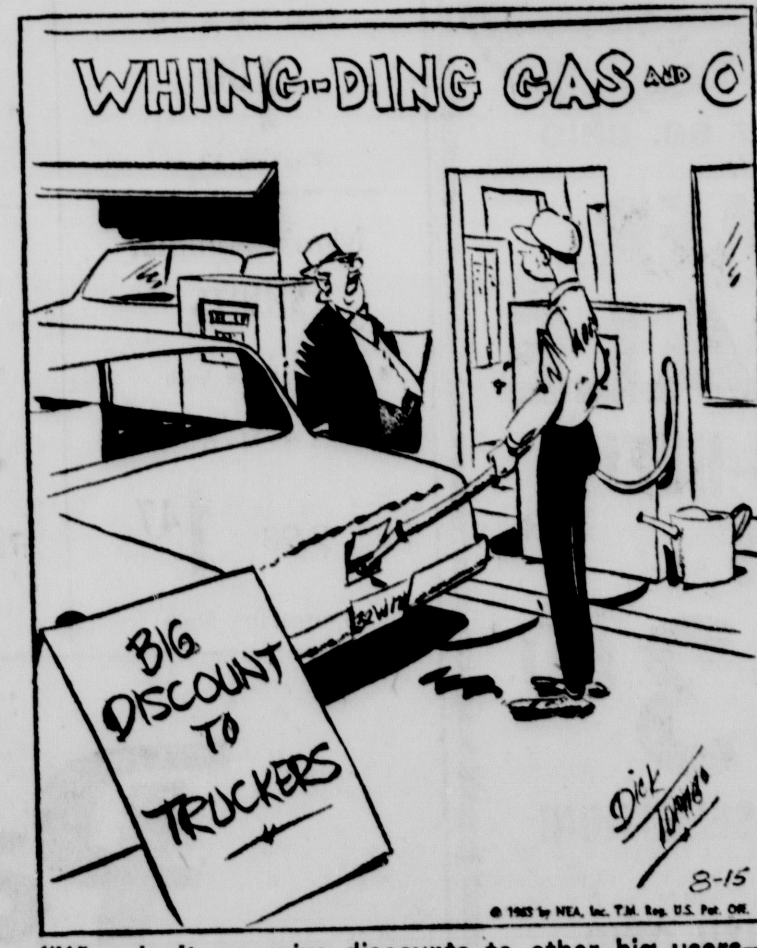

He and his family—his brothers and his powerful sister-in-law, Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, are his closest advisers—run the country. All are Roman Catholics. Vietnamese democracy has been called "Diemocracy."

Diem denies the Buddhists' charges of religious persecution. Five of them have burned themselves to death in protest. Mrs. Nhu calls them fanatics and says she would clap hands if 30 monks barbecued themselves.

The United States is again motivated by fear in criticizing Diem's treatment of the Buddhists: fear that his tactics will lose him support among the people and jeopardize the whole war against communism.

Where this new toughness will lead, or how long it will last, is unpredictable. But if the United States had been tougher with Diem long ago, Viet Nam might now be a better bulwark against communism.

CARNIVAL

"Why don't you give discounts to other big users—like the fathers of teen-agers?"

Put yourself in the position of the poor, illiterate Vietnamese masses with a short life expectancy because of disease and lack of medical care. They have not known much about freedom, except perhaps freedom to die, and nothing at all about democracy or communism.

This ignorance about the isms explains the peasants' great lack of interest in the war. If you were a peasant and had to make a choice between the two, you'd pick the one that promised the most for you and your family.

To be persuasive, the Diem government would have to give tangible evidence, in reforms and programs, of what being on the non-Communist side could mean. Diem has given the people few reforms or programs. The American government has done extremely little talking about them, either.

Diem, an aristocrat, has been mainly concerned with fighting the guerrillas and keeping power. He has a secret police to help him keep it. Mrs. Nhu said frankly not long ago her family has money and wants power.

Since Diem took over eight years ago this country has put over $2.5 billion into Viet Nam. It has more than 12,000 troops there, a number of whom have been killed.

That war, which now has no end in sight, might be going differently if the United States long ago had gotten tough with Diem and demanded he put in reforms and programs that would give the peasants a good reason for being non-Communist.

This year four senators who visited Viet Nam returned and said in a report: "Present political practices in Viet Nam do not appear to be mobilizing the potential capacities for able and self-sacrificing leadership on a substantial scale."

"The government of Viet Nam and our policies, particularly in the design and administration of aid, must bear a substantial, a very substantial, share of the responsibility."

In one form or another the Viet Nam kind of problem haunts the United States around the world in backward countries, or not so backward ones, where it is giving aid to frustrate communism.

It's how to get a dictatorship, or a ruling elite, to give the masses programs for a better way of life as visible cause for preferring not to be Communist.

The Well Child

Permissiveness Is Not Same as Submissiveness

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M. D.

The chief job of parents is to act as guides and teachers of the art of living to their children. To help them to do this they are bombarded on all sides with advice, much of it conflicting and therefore confusing.

In spite of all this, most parents are doing a creditable job. This is largely because they can't go far wrong if they show true affection for their children and praise them for accomplishments without expecting a level of attainment beyond the child's capacity.

Ever since Freud described the evil consequences of childhood frustrations, parents have been urged to be less authoritarian and more permissive in their attitudes toward their children. Dr. Leo Kanner, the eminent child psychiatrist, points out that in the constructive sense, permissiveness is a controlling but kindly way of permitting a child to be himself and to exercise his own will without letting him encroach on the rights of others.

However, when parents substitute submissiveness for this kind of permissiveness everyone is the loser.

If, for example, the child is allowed to strike his parents or others or to indulge in temper tantrums, he will find as soon as he enters school or kindergarten that the submissiveness of his parents is not shared by the rest of the community.

At this point his frustrations will begin in earnest and he will come in time to blame his parents, and rightly so, for his failure to get along. But by then it may be too late for him to completely change his personality.

One important aspect of permissiveness is to allow the child to develop at his own rate without driving him toward perfection at too early an age. Expecting too much too soon can only lead to disappointment and discouragement.

There is also the less obvious necessity of allowing a child to be himself in spite of any physical handicap he may have. Whether it be a very prominent birth mark or an ugly scar acquired sometime after his birth, acceptance by the parents without undue emphasis will help the child to accept what can't be changed and will minimize emotional conflicts over it.

Wise parents have always known this instinctively. Those who have not known it but have learned it well have been amply rewarded in seeing the self-confident unfolding of the personality of their child.

Q — What diseases is a newborn baby immune to and how long does this immunity last?

A — Assuming that the mother was immune to measles, smallpox, mumps, diphtheria, tetanus, whooping cough, chicken pox and poliomyelitis, there will be a varying amount of antibodies against these diseases in the blood of the newborn but they will have disappeared within three to six months. That is why immunizations against the diseases for which such immunization is available should be given before the end of the first year.

Give Two C's a Try

By Polly Cramer

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — If family life or your marriage seem in need of repairs, try the two "C's"—Compliments and Compromise. Try complimenting your husband's and children's efforts at least once a day. I did and was amazed when I stopped to think of the varied skills and the time, energy, strength and devotion my husband pours into making his family comfortable. Just remarking about a job that has been well done or an improvement in personal appearance helps that man or girl or boy face the world a better person.

As for Compromise, try re-tracing your steps when you are angrily laying down the law in harsh tones and unconditional terms. Rephrase your ultimatum, taking into account the teenagers' needs and wishes. Soon they will be using the same approach to family problems. These two "c's" are remaking my family life—these and a little cologne.—C. B.

DEAR POLLY — Take a piece of old garden hose about 14 or 16 inches long, slit it lengthwise and fit it over the base tubing of your metal porch chairs that are used on cement. It makes the chairs easier sitting and cuts down on the clatter when moving these chairs. I discovered this when my wife complained about our old metal chairs rusting and leaving marks on our cement porch. — E. P. S.

GIRLS — Not as messy as it sounds. I know that you all know that eggs at room temperature have more volume when beaten but did you know that chilled ones separate better?—POLLY

The Mature Parent

When to Include Mother

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR Mrs. Lawrence: My mother lives with me, my husband and our little boy. Though she is over 50, she is so young in heart that all our friends include her in their invitations to us. My problem is one couple who recently moved into our neighborhood. Yesterday when the wife telephoned to ask us to a barbecue next Saturday night, I said, "You are including Mother, too, aren't you?" and she said straight out, "No, she is not invited." I have refused to go but my husband says he is going. . .

ANSWER: My dear, this is a hot day. I am also depressed by the state of the world. If anything could make me feel hotter and more depressed, it is the thought you present to me of a 50-year-old skipping enthusiastically off to Saturday night barbecues with her children's friends.

Why does your mother want to go to your parties?

She is, I think, too young in heart. Look. Let me talk to her, will you?

Madam, children are delightful creatures. We derive great satisfaction out of their first astonished encounters with fireflies, cotton candy, sex, weddings, the birth of their own children. But it is at best a second-hand satisfaction.

We ourselves have finished with the kind of excitement they feel at these encounters. So we cannot be real participants in their Saturday night barbecues. At best we can be only spectators. For our difference in generation from our children's is inexorable, imposing on both them and us a difference of response to experience which no affection, however deep, can possibly bridge.

So I don't believe that you are content with the social life of your daughter and her husband. I urge you to welcome this discontent.

I am sure that it's felt in your truth-knowing moments. I think that before you fall asleep after returning from one of these youthful parties, you must painfully feel your difference and loneliness as an older participant. Stop running away from it. It's the push of your own vitality toward a life of your own — a runway to be used as your take-off into new encounters.

So let's use it. What about saying to these kids of yours, "Listen I don't want to go to this party of yours Saturday night. I want to make one of my own. I want to help with my cocktails and canapes. And I'm going to the phone right now to invite people to come to it. . ."

It's foolish to argue with your doctor, because he probably has inside information.

One of First To Honor Greats

Bowling was one of the first sports to recognize its great performers of the past by establishing a Hall of Fame. Its founding in 1941 came just five years after baseball, generally acknowledged as the first sport to create a perpetual memorial to its storied heroes, held its initial election.

Eleven men became charter members of the American Bowling Congress Hall of Fame in the 1941 election. Since then, the roster has risen to 27. A vote is conducted annually, with 75 per cent of the ballots cast by more than 100 veteran writers, broadcasters and ABC officials being necessary for election.

A Hall of Fame match follows induction of new members annually on the ABC tournament lanes. The men are outfitted in specially designed white uniforms and their get-together for another night of reminiscing and story telling is something they cherish with amazing sentiment. In the stands, many a spectator dabs unashamedly at a tear as the former greats of the game parade slowly up the lanes to the strains of stirring march music and organ fanfare.

The Hall of Fame board, of which onetime Chicago star Joe Wilman is president, meets once a year to discuss matters of great importance to the perpetuation of the game's history. The board has a Veterans committee that recommends earlier stars for enshrinement in the Veterans class in alternate years. The committee also studies recommendations for Meritorious Service award plaques for men who made great contributions to the game in the executive and promotional capacities.

Long range plans of ABC include a permanent display area, perhaps even a small addition to its national headquarters in Milwaukee, where meorials to the Hall of Fame members can be shown along with a large collection of historical pins, balls, uniforms and other memorabilia. Currently, sculptors are creating handsome bronze tablets of each man to be hung in the national headquarters.

Living members of the Hall are Frank Benkovic, Joe Bodis, Allie Brandt, Adolph Carlson, John Crimmins, Ned Day, Buzz Fazio, Herb Lange, Hank Marino, Junie McMahon, Steve Nagy, Joe Norris, Billy Sixty, Andy Varipapa, Walter Ward and Joe Wilman. Deceased are Jimmy Blouin, Charley Daw, Ed Easter, Billy Knox, John Koster, Mort Lindsey, Jimmy Smith, Harry Steers, Phil Wolf, George Young and Gil Zunker.

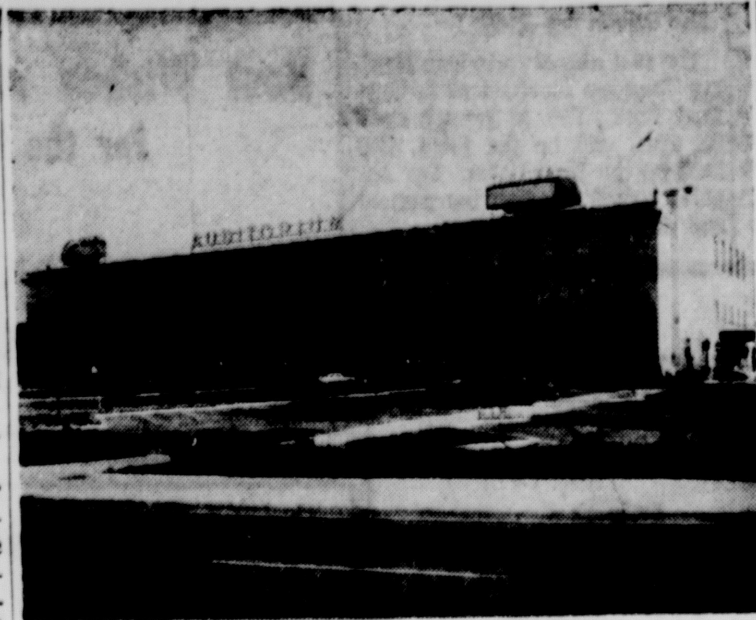

Today's qualifications for election to the Hall include participation in 20 ABC tournaments and outstanding performances in all phases of competitive bowling. Fazio and Nagy both topped the minimum requirement of 75 per cent of votes cast and were elected this year along with Easter as a deceased Veteran.

Collectively, the Hall of Famers own 47 ABC tournament championships, four each by Koster and Wilman. Nagy shares the all-time doubles record of 1453, set in 1952, and his 208-22 average is the highest ever recorded for a 10 year span. Marino was elected Bowler of the Half Century in an Associated Press poll in 1951 and Brandt's 886 series on Oct. 25, 1939 in Lockport, N. Y. still is the highest ever bowled in league play. Easter, who died in August of 1962, was the ABC tournament's oldest champion, winning that honor in 1950 at the age of 66 as a member of the championship Pepsi-Cola team of Detroit. No story of the Hall of Fame would be complete without mentioning Harry Steers. Known as the Grand Old Man of Bowling,

Fred Delella

SINGLES CHAMPION—Fred Delella of Oneonta, N.Y. wrote one of the most interesting chapters of alltime into the ABC tournament books. Bowling with a cut finger, he had scored only 462 in team event and 488 in doubles and had never before had a 700 series in any type competition. But Delella bowled 30 errorless frames with games of 257, 253 and 234 to claim an ABC title and a spot on the U.S. Mexico-bound team with a 744 series. That score is 16th highest in history in the Regular division singles.

OAKLAND AUDITORIUM
SITE OF 1964 ABC TOURNAMENT

The second ABC to be held in California will open a 65-day run on Feb. 22, 1964 at Oakland Auditorium. A total of 4050 teams can be accommodated in the 61st annual classic which closes on April 26 and reservations are being accepted through Nov. 1, 1963. After that time and until final entry deadline on Jan. 21, 1964, entries are taken on a first come, first served basis. The auditorium will house 32 new lanes on which bowlers of every degree of skill will compete for titles in the world's largest participant sports event. California's first ABC was in Los Angeles in 1947.

Harry passed away last February, just a few days before the 60th annual ABC tournament opened in Buffalo. To many an oldtimer, this took a little edge off the world's largest and most glamorous tournament.

Harry, you see, had become a sports legend by bowling in 57 of 59 ABC's. He missed the first one in Chicago in 1901 because he was too young, and he missed the 1903 event because Buffalo in those days was too far to travel. Then he bowled in the next 56 in a row!

"Where'd the Ball Go?"

Bowling is a game in which the participant rolls a heavy ball at 10 pins 60 feet away. In most cases, some or all of the pins are knocked down and the ball winds up in an area in back of the pins known as the pit where it awaits its return to the bowler.

But not always.

Ken Woodring of Dayton, Ohio delivered a first ball during a 1962-63 season league session and was startled to see only the 1, 2, 3 and 5 pins fall. He was even more amazed seconds later when his ball went into reverse and returned back up the lane about three-fourths of the way before dropping in the gutter.

Woodring had plenty of company during the past season. Dave Grosse of Waterloo, Iowa also knocked down only the 1, 2, 3 and 5 pins with his first delivery, then watched as the ball hit the thumb hole and stopped dead just past the 5 pin spot. A Monroe, Louisiana bowler reported his ball stopped dead after hitting the headpin, with only the 1, 2, 3 and 5 falling. A Sheboygan, Wisconsin member of the Professional Bowlers Association, Joe Root, saw his ball stop between the 5 and 8 pins on his first delivery.

Lou Biancoli of Hubbard, Ohio must have had plenty of English on his ball when he sent it wheeling straight into the headpin. He left the 7-10 split and his ball returned 30 feet up the lane.

Many of the more unusual delivery results are by women who tend to throw the ball slower. For instance, Kay Goodman of Seattle recounts her experience in shooting at the 1-3-6 leave. Kay tossed her ball wide and watched as it curved in to take out the 3 pin, leaving the 1 and 6.

Normally the 4-7-9-10 is a tough split but a Cleveland lady converted it and wasn't credited with a spare. You see those were the only pins she got with her FIRST ball.

Perhaps the most unusual delivery in some time came on a ball that nearly left the establishment before making contact with the lane. It happened in the 1962 California men's state tournament at Santa Barbara. The victim made his delivery but the ball stuck and the follow through carried the ball through the ceiling of the establishment. It re-entered bringing with it four feet of ceiling and finally wound up in the gutter.

Chicago has produced 26 ABC tournament team champions.

Nobody Escapes the Split, Bowling's Great Equalizer

Show us a man who's never faced a split and we'll show you a man who's never bowled.

That statement may never achieve lasting literary fame but it will be hard to beat for accuracy. Pages could be written in bowling annals of championships lost because of an untimely split. Volumes could be written about good games ruined by this universal hazard of the game.

Splits are as unpredictable as they are fickle. One ball might hit the pins badly and carry, the next, thrown with apparent perfection leaves a split. The split plays no favorite and stands as the game's most consistent equalizer. The causes of splits are multitudinous and never clear to the bowler who gets one, naturally.

BOWLING magazine, official publication of the American Bowling Congress, in its annual Year-book devotes nearly a half page to split records. The most recent entry was by Joe Werner of Pomona, N. Y., who this past season was faced with 24 splits in one three game series. Werner, who topped the old record of 17, deftly converted nine 3-10 splits and a 5-10 to avert tragedy and salvage a 441 series.

Len Morica of Warren, Ohio holds the record for most splits in a game, 10, set in 1948 while Len Sisson of Long Beach, Calif. is in the book with 11 straight splits, spanning two games in 1950. For the season, Merritt Quinn of Milford, Pa. must take dubious bows for his 184 splits in 90 league games during the 1951-52 season.

Sportsman's team of Ames, Ia., set a record in 1951 when it put the ominous circle on the score-sheet 45 times in one series but Lengel Meat Packers of Toledo almost topped that in single games in 1955, winding up with 37 splits in one game and 35 another time. Velma's Supper Club and Coors squared off in a league match in Durango, Colo. in 1962 and combined for a record 74 splits, 39 by the former, 35 by the latter.

For monotony, consider Joe Sitzberger of Milwaukee looking at nine 7-10 splits in one series in 1942 and Payne Rose of St. Louis in 1962 facing six 7-10s in a single game. Rose also holds the record for consecutive 7-10 leaves with those six.

Many bowlers would rather shoot at the 7-10 than the 8-10. Alltime king of the 8-10 split is Milwaukee's John Ermi who had 12 in a 1937 series to set the record and seven during three games in 1943 to rank third on the alltime list.

Among other split records, Frank Campbell of Davenport, Ia. left five consecutive 5-7s in 1943; Alvin Hunter, Ogden, Utah, and Bill Franklin, Springfield, Ill. both left four straight Big Fours in 1960 and 1961, respectively; Herman Eagler, Decatur, Ill., faced five Big Fours in one game and Warren Robinson, Montebello, Calif. suffered through three Sour Apples (5-7-10) in 1961.

On the brighter side, Olson Motors of Marquette, Mich. holds the record for converting six consecutive splits and H. J. Leslie of Muskogee, Okla. is on top by sparing seven splits in one game during the 1944-45 season.

Al Dugay of Toledo owns the first 5-7-10 conversion ever authenticated. He did it in 1956 and there have been numerous reports since that time.

Phil Irving, Port Huron, Mich. (1936); Karl Adler, Detroit (1940); and Ray Eilerman, Cincinnati (1950) all are credited with converting the 7-10 twice in the same game. Tony Rader of Milwaukee (1943) and Ray Kirschner, Louisville (1951 All-Star tournament) claim fame with two 8-10 pickups in a single game. A pair of Big Fours in one game have been converted by Raphael Chajka of New Brighton, Minn. (1960) and Gene Zotti, St. Louis, (1961).

Art Knighton, then an Oakland, Calif. bowling writer, practiced what he preached in 1944 when he cleared off two 4-6 splits, and Colonel Robert Miller, Ft. Lawton, Wash. made two consecutive 7-9s in 1960.

Three 6-7-10s in a row have been picked off by Bill Sederberg, Cincinnati (1959) and Harry Campion, Forest Park, Ill. Morton Confield of Minneapolis cleared away five straight 5-7 splits in 1957 and Francis Barger, Salisbury, N. C. converted the 3-10 eight times in a row in 1961, five in one game and three in the next.

In the 1962-63 season Henry Slezak of Bradford, Pa. cleared off the 3-4-6-7-8-10 split and started a "can you top this" contest. Evelyn Carlson of Stockton, Calif. wrote to BOWLING to report that she'd faced this situation 11 times in a year and a half and had it all figured out. She explained that the hand on top of the ball at time of delivery caused it to skid, leaving the mess. And Frank Penarian of West Sacramento, Calif. reported that he removed the 3-6-7-8-10 split by missing his spot, sending the ball into the three pin which went into the 6-10. The ball grazed the 8 pin which took out the 7.

CLASSIC DOUBLES CHAMPIONS—Detroit's Joe Joseph and Billy Golembiewski added this title to the national doubles crown they won earlier in the season. Joseph contributed a 278 game and 728 series to the 1378 total and Golembiewski added 650. They shot the score on the 11th day of a 72-day tournament to claim their second ABC crowns. Both were members of the 1959 Pfeiffer team which set the alltime record of 3243.

153 Average? You've Lots Of Company in ABC Ranks

If your average this past season was 153, you share the distinction of being "Mr. Average Bowler" among the nearly 5 million members of the American Bowling Congress.

A survey conducted following the 1960-61 season revealed that ABC members averaged 153.968 that season. This was less than one point below the national average resulting from a survey made after the 1954-55 season. In the period between the two surveys, Congress membership more than doubled, indicating an overall growth in bowling excellence.

According to ABC assistant secretary Albert R. Matzelle, who conducted both surveys:

"In view of the growth between surveys, we have to assume that a large percentage of these new bowlers were in the lower average ranges. This demonstrates that sound instructional programs have resulted in a general uplifting of averages to offset the influx of lower average bowlers."

The pattern the past two seasons (and for 1963-64) will closely parallel that of the survey year in which 155 was the midpoint average with just as many bowlers over that mark as under. The most prevalent range is 155-159, embracing 11.8 per cent of ABC membership. And nearly 55 per cent of all members fall within the 145-169 range.

In 1954-55, three-tenths of one per cent of ABC members averaged 109 or less. The 1960-61 survey shows that figure increased to nine-tenths of one per cent with a 900 per cent increase in actual number of bowlers in that group.

This figure is offset partially by the higher average groups alone. Bowlers averaging 185 to 200 or more made up 1.8 per cent of ABC membership in 1954-55 and 2.1 per cent in 1960-61 with an almost 500 per cent jump in number of actual bowlers. Percentage of actual bowlers in these categories far surpassed ABC's membership increase of 102 per cent for the period. For instance, there was a 173 per cent increase in the number of bowlers averaging 200 or more; the 195-199 range saw a 165 per cent jump, and the 185-194 group increased by 155 per cent.

With more than 34 per cent of ABC members in the 150-164 average range, the most popular league classification level seems to be between 750 and 820 pins. So while bowlers continue to improve, bowling remains the game for everyone, the game where Mr. Average Bowler reaches for the top — and often makes it.

Steve Nagy's 208-22 average for 10 consecutive ABC tournaments is the record.

Tony Baldwin

HIGHEST GAME—A rocking four pin was all that stood between 45 year old Tony Baldwin, Tulsa, Okla. and a 300 game in the 1963 ABC tournament. Baldwin collected the event's highest game, a 299, in his first game of Regular division doubles, the 19th 299 game in ABC history. Baldwin wound up with a 665 series in doubles and his 1944 all events total was eighth in Regular division. Harry Smith had the top game in Classic division, a 296.

A Global Program

The American Bowling Congress certified bowling lanes in the Bahamas, Bermuda, Canada, the Canal Zone, Chile, Marianas Island, Mexico, Newfoundland, Puerto Rico and Saudi Arabia during the 1962-63 season in addition to those certified in the United States and foreign military installations around the world.

Most frequent first ball leaves in bowling are the 7 or 10 pins.

Bowling Lane Room

Since the end of World War II the number of ABC certified establishments in the United States has increased from 5,382 to 10,882 and number of individual lanes from 44,028 to 157,705.

Yankees Sweep Cleveland Pair

By MIKE RATHER

Associated Press Sports Writer

"When I played ball, the only guys we threw at were .300 hitters," Cleveland Manager Birdie Tebbetts said wryly. "Hell, the Yankees haven't got any."

Either way you look at it, for three minutes an explosive situation rocked Yankee Stadium Wednesday night at the tail end of the New York Yankees' doubleheader sweep over Cleveland by identical 3-1 scores.

Pepitone, who punched out four hits in the doubleheader, wound up throwing 'em after he was hit by a pitch for the second time in the eighth inning of the second game. He was hit on the wrist by Barry Latham in the third, then nicked by Gary Bell.

He started toward the mound and was restrained by Umpire DiMuro, who told Bell he was being fined $50 for throwing a beanball.

Pepitone then jogged to first, turned and started again toward the mound. He was grabbed by first baseman Fred Whitfield and, within seconds, players were flailing away all over the field.

"All the balls I saw thrown were low," said Tebbetts, "except the ones they (Stan Williams) were throwing."

"I'm not mad at anybody," said Pepitone. "After I was hit the second time I yelled at Bell, he yelled at me and pretty soon we were calling each other names. I just got upset and headed for him."

"I wasn't trying to hit him," said Bell. "And I'm not mad at him. But one word led to another."

It also led to Pepitone's ejection and four casualties — Cleveland infielders Larry Brown and Dick Houser, who suffered leg cuts, and managers Tebbetts and Ralph Houk of the Yankees, who were acting as peacemakers.

Houk suffered a muscle pull in his right thigh and Tebbetts was stepped on and spiked by Pepitone, he said.

The twin victories increased the Yankees' American League lead to 10 games over Chicago White Sox, who whipped Boston 7-1 as Gary Peters posted his ninth consecutive victory with a six-hitter.

Minnesota walloped Detroit 12-1, Washington took Kansas City 5-1, and Baltimore and the Los Angeles Angels split. The Orioles won 7-3 as Steve Barber became the AL's biggest winner with 18 victories and the Angels took the nightcap 3-2.

Pepitone drove in the decisive runs for the Yankees in the nightcap with a two-run double off loser Latham in the first inning, and Williams, 7-3, protected the lead all the way by keeping eight Indians hits well spaced. Tom Tresh stroked two doubles in the opener, scoring the first Yankee run and driving in the other two, in support of Al Downing's three-hit pitching. Downing is 9-4.

Peters, a rookie left-hander, brought his record to 14-5 and extended a string of scoreless innings to 25 before the Red Sox scored in the ninth on singles by Frank Malzone, Ed Bressoud and Bob Tillman. Peters' got batting support from rookie teammate Pete Ward, who hit his 17th homer and drove in another run with a grounder. Bill Monbouquette, 16-8, took the loss.

Don Mincher paced the Twins against the Tigers with a single, double, homer and four runs batted in, while Rich Rollins drove in three with two singles before leaving the game with a sprained wrist. Both Mincher and Harmon Killebrew collected two hits in an eight-run fourth inning that made it easy for Camilo Pascual, 16-6.

Don Lock and Don Zimmer hit homers in the Senators' triumph over the A's. Zimmer scoring the tie-breaking run in the seventh when he singled and came around on singles by Ken Retzer and Chuck Cottier. Ron Moeller was the winner with Ed Roebuck's relief help.

Barber, 18-9, won the opener for the Orioles with Dick Hall's two-hit relief over the final 3-1-3 innings. A six-run second inning, in which the key hits were a two-run single by Jerry Adair and a two-run double by Russ Snyder, got the job done. The Angels came back to take the nightcap with a double by F. Torres and singles by Lee Thomas and Bob Rodgers. Art Fowler was the winner with 4-2-3 innings of two-hit relief work.

Dodgers Defeat St. Louis, 2-1

By MIKE RATHER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Johnny Roseboro, who probably has set a world record for deep knee bends, ripped a line single just before the clock struck midnight at Los Angeles that may have tolled the end of St. Louis' National League pennant hopes.

The Dodger catcher singled past third base scoring Ken McMullen, who had doubled, with the winning run in a 16-inning marathon that gave the first-place Dodgers a 2-1 decision over the Cardinals and a 7½-game lead.

That sent the largest crowd of the year—34,125—home happy despite their failure to see Sandy Koufax get his 20th victory. The ace Los Angeles left-hander left for a pinch hitter in the 12th after allowing nine hits.

Koufax, however, did achieve another distinction in his battle with Cardinal starter Curt Simmons, who retired for a pinch swinger in the 14th after pitching a seven-hitter. In the 12th, Koufax struck out Tim McCarver for the 1,400th strikeout of his career.

The triumph, the Dodgers seventh in a row and sixth straight against the Cardinals, also dropped defending champion San Francisco another length back. The Giants fell 8½ behind, losing their fifth in a row, 6-2 to Milwaukee as Eddie Mathews hit two homers for the Braves.

Elsewhere, Houston's Don Nottebart, who allowed a run when he pitched a no-hitter against Philadelphia May 17, posted his first shutout with a four-hit, 1-0 victory over Cincinnati, and Jerry Lynch set a major league record with his 15th pinch-hit homer, a ninth-inning shot that gave Pittsburgh a 7-6 decision over the Chicago Cubs.

The New York Mets and Philadelphia were rained out.

The Dodgers scored first, getting a run in the third on a double by Jim Gilliam and Frank Howard's single, but the Cardinals got even in the sixth when Ken Boyer singled and eventually came across on Julian Javier's grounder. It stayed at 1-1 until the 16th when, with two out, McMullen bounced a ground rule double over the center field fence and Roseboro followed with his clincher Larry Sherry, 2-4, was the winner, with Ron Taylor, 7-5, taking the loss.

The Braves, winning their seventh in eight games at San Francisco, scored twice in the first against Gaylord Perry and were never headed. A leadoff triple by Lee Maye, Frank Bolling's sacrifice fly and Mathews' first homer did the damage. Hank Aaron doubled home a run in the third before Mathews connected again in the fifth. Supported by a 14-hit attack, Bob Hendley went the distance for the Braves and brought his record to 8-8 by scattering eight Giants hits.

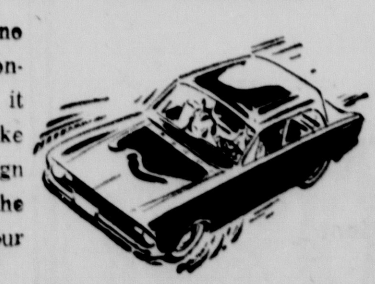

Nottebart, 8-5, outdueling the Reds' Jim O'Toole, who allowed only five hits in the seven innings he worked. The Colts nicked O'Toole, 13-11, for the game's only run in the second on a single by Carl Warwick, a ground out and Bob Aspromonte's single. Nottebart got into his only jam when Tommy Harper led off the fourth with a triple, but he set down Vada Pinson, Frank Robinson and Gordy Coleman in order.

Lynch, who exactly a month ago tagged Lindy McDaniel for his 14th pinch-hit homer, tagged McDaniel for the game-winner and the record-breaker on a 3-1 pitch. The blow broke George Crowe's record of 14 and made Al McBride, 13-3, the winner. McDaniel, 8-6, lost it. The Pirates had to scramble to win as Harvey Haddix tied a NL record of three wild pitches in one inning as the Cubs pulled ahead with three runs in the sixth.

Asks Estranged Wife Be Cited for Contempt

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Jacques Bergerac wants his estranged wife, actress Dorothy Malone, cited for contempt of court because, he says, she makes faces at him when he visits their two daughters.

Bergerac testified Tuesday in court that Miss Malone was trying to alienate the girls, Mimi, 3, and Diane, 18 months, from him.

Bergerac and Miss Malone, both 35, are awaiting trial of divorce suits against each other.

Fire Heavily Damages Three KC Buildings

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Fire heavily damaged an industrial building occupied by three firms Tuesday night.

Twelve fire companies fought the blaze. An estimate of the loss was not available.

The building (at 3301-5 E. 9th St.) has a 90-foot frontage and is more than 250 feet long. The fire burned quickly through a one-story section at the rear and then penetrated the two-story front.

The supply and contracting division of the Owens-Corning Fiberglas Corp. occupies the upper floors, and the basement was leased by Modern Industries Inc. and the Kansas City Quilting Co.
